Raising Literacy & Numeracy	Early years and primary school students	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Achieving RRF's minimum standard namely the standard set out in National Curriculum key stages 1 and 2;• Outperforming sub-levels by a significant factor, e.g. by exceeding expected progress within each key stage.
2. Progression into Work	16-24 year olds and others attending schools and higher and further education institutions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Entry into sustainable employment offering job satisfaction, retention and prospects of career progression and self-improvement.
3. Music	Young people under the age of 25 from disadvantaged backgrounds who wish to study music	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students achieve musical progression• Students develop confidence and self-esteem

The Richard Reeves Foundation may fund other work which is more generally related to our charitable objects. Please contact the Clerk for advice before submitting an application which does not meet the above three strategic priorities. Our charitable objects are broadly to: advance or assist in the education or care of young people under the age of 25.

2. Area of Benefit

The Richard Reeve's Foundation's Area of Benefit is the London Boroughs of Islington, Camden and the City of London.

3. Guidelines for Applicants

- i. Before applying, applicants are strongly advised to look at projects the Foundation has funded which can be found on its website: www.richardreevesfoundation.org.uk
- ii. Applications will only be considered that directly contribute to achieving one of the above priorities
- iii. All applicants are requested to use this application form
- iv. Grants are considered for up to 3 years or 5 years in very exceptional cases. Both revenue and capital projects are considered
- v. In the case of multi-year grants, the Foundation will conduct a formal review of performance each year. This will comprise a progress report and a visit by the Foundation. The following year's payment will be released once approval has been given
- vi. Please check for 'word limits' on each section, as information in excess of the limit specified, will not be evaluated
- vii. Applications may be submitted at any time of the year

- viii. All applications are reviewed by the Clerk. Further information may be requested and you may also be requested to attend an interview with the Clerk and one or two Foundation Governors to present your project
- ix. Each application is reviewed by the Foundation's Strategy Committee which meets more-or-less quarterly. We will score sections 5, 7, 8, 9 and 10 equally out of 5.
- x. The Strategy Committee makes a recommendation either to approve or decline to the Board of Governors which meets quarterly
- xi. Please enclose with your application, a copy of your most recent set of signed annual report and accounts
- xii. RRF reserves the right to appoint a 3rd party evaluator. We expect successful applicants to work with these evaluators.
